This guide will help you find your bus stops

in Downtown Seattle when the transit tunnel closes on Sept. 24.

If you know your bus route number:

- Use the tables on the reverse side to find bus route numbers and boarding locations for service traveling through Downtown Seattle on 2nd, 3rd & 4th avenues.
- Look at the Boarding Location maps to find the bus stops for your route. Maps are organized by avenues and streets, and only show boarding locations for service that is leaving downtown (see new timetables or the online Trip Planner for arrival
- Use your timetable, posted bus stop schedule, or the online Trip Planner for the specific schedule times and stops for your bus.

If you just want to get around downtown:

• Refer to the "Zip Around Downtown" section on the reverse side.

If you don't know your route number:

- Call your local transit service provider (see back panel).
- Use the regional online Trip Planner at http://transit.metrokc.gov. Be sure to enter a travel date of Sept. 24 or later. The Trip Planner includes local and express bus information, plus commuter rail and ferry schedule information.

REMEMBER:

- The two-year closure of the Downtown Seattle Transit Tunnel affects more bus service than just the 21 tunnel routes. More than 70 routes have changes to their downtown routing or stops.
- Bus route numbers have not changed; but some downtown bus stop locations have changed.
- No routes are discontinued. All tunnel routes will operate on surface streets after the tunnel closes.
- Not all buses pick up and drop off passengers at all stops; buses will alternate stops on 2nd, 3rd & 4th avenues.
- Downtown bus service on 1st Avenue is not changing, and most of 5th Avenue service remains the same.
- It's still FREE to ride the bus in the Ride Free Area downtown before 7 p.m.!

Tips for using the maps:

Downtown bus service on 1st Avenue is not changing, and most of 5th Avenue service

What's changing on September 24?

- The Downtown Seattle Transit Tunnel is closing for up to two years while Sound Transit retrofits it for use by buses and light rail;
- The 21 tunnel bus routes will relocate to surface streets;
- More than 70 Metro and Sound Transit routes have changes in their downtown routing or stops;
- There will be a new alternating stop pattern for 3rd Avenue buses;
- New downtown bus stops or stop revisions on 5th Avenue S, 9th Avenue, Pike Street, Olive Way, Stewart Street and Virginia Street;
- There are many routing changes to or from 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th avenues.
- Sound Transit service from Snohomish County will operate on 5th Avenue instead of 2nd Ave.

What's not changing?

- Bus service in Downtown Seattle is still FREE in the Ride Free Area before 7 p.m.;
- No bus routes are being eliminated, and no route numbers are changing;
- Downtown bus service on 1st Avenue is not changing, and most 5th Avenue service remains the same;
- Community Transit service remains the same. Pick up a CT Commuter Bus Plus book.
- Some Sound Transit buses have routing and stop changes. See the Get Ready to Ride Transit Guide.
- The best way to find specific information for your route is to pick up a new schedule, or visit the regional online Trip Planner at http://tripplanner.metrokc.gov/ and enter a travel date of Sept. 24 or later.
